

Tydings Asks U.S. Go Ahead With H-Bomb

Says Failure To Have It Invites War

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) Senator Tydings (D-Md), chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, urged tonight that the United States go ahead with the development of the hydrogen bomb, saying our failure to have it could invite attack.

Tydings was the second major Senate committee head to come out flatly for development of the H-bomb, which reportedly would be eight to 1,000 times more powerful than the present atomic weapons.

Over the weekend, Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate foreign relations committee said the United States should arm itself with the bomb.

Both On Atomic Group
The words of both men take on added significance in that they are members of the Joint Senate-House atomic committee. The committee today disclosed that it has had the matter of the H-bomb under continuous and comprehensive study for several months and may be nearing the point of making a recommendation to the president.

Tydings told reporters that the Senate armed services committee "will undoubtedly look into the matter and will want to be briefed about the consequences of this bomb in our own and enemy hands if it were to be used."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), a member of the armed services group, also has said that "the committee should look into the matter."

Tydings said it was only with "great reluctance" that he reached the conclusion the United States should forge ahead with the new destructive weapon.

"In the interests of our own national security and for the peoples of those nations that are generally associated with us in world affairs, I do not believe we have any option in the matter except to build the hydrogen bomb," Tydings said.

"There is every reason to suppose that now that Russia is building atomic bombs she will soon begin the experiments and attempt to perfect the mechanisms to build a similar bomb to the so-called hydrogen bomb."

"Considering the tense condition of world affairs, if Russia were to succeed in building a number of these bombs of terrific destructive potentialities while we had none, it could conceivably lead to war."

Tydings held that a Russian monopoly of the bomb would weaken both the United States' leadership among democratic countries and at international conferences.

U. S. Offers Some Of Farm Support Goods For Sale

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) The government today offered for sale in this country some of the $3,700,000, 000 worth of farm commodities it acquired to support prices. It offered no bargain, at least for the present.

The Department of Agriculture attached price tags which mostly are higher than current commercial market levels. Only peanuts were offered at current prices. Wheat was priced about 97 cents a bushel above commercial quotations.

The products offered for sale are wheat, barley, oats, corn, dry edible beans, flaxseed, raw linseed oil, peanuts, cheese, butter and non-fat dry milk solids.

The amounts varied. Included were 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, 100,000,000 of corn, 25,000,000 pounds of cheese and 35,000,000 pounds of creamery butter.

$25,000 Reward Offered In New York Jewel Theft

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP) A $25,000 reward was offered in a $428,000 jewel theft today as police considered the possibility that an international ring of thieves might have pulled it off.

Legion Urges U. M. T. Instead Of Draft Law

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) The American Legion urged congress today to enact universal military training instead of continuing the peacetime draft law.

Miles D. Kennedy, director of the Legion's national legislative commission, said the big veterans' organization has supported the draft "as a temporary expedient" in the past but that it feels its value as a deterrent to aggressors has passed.

"The potential strength of the American nation can best be organized through national security training, and now is the time for enactment of this program," Kennedy said.

U.M.T. would be a permanent system for training young people to prepare them for defending the country in case of war. The setup would be separate from the armed services and all young men would be subject to the training. Under the draft law, as it has operated in the past, a portion of the nation's youth is selected for service with the armed forces.

In the past congress has turned a deaf ear to President Truman's requests for U.M.T. apparently reasoning it would do so again. Mr. Truman did not ask funds to run such a program in the budget he submitted to congress early this month.

The Legion spokesman was one of a number of draft opponents who testified before the House armed services committee. It is considering the administration's request for a three-year extension of the selective service law, due to expire in June.

Support for such an extension came from Maj. Gen. Ellard A. Walsh, president of the National Guard Association of the United States. He said the act should be continued because it would save valuable time in the event it becomes necessary to mobilize in the future.

No men have been inducted under the present law for some months. Walsh said his group would not object to a ban against future inductions unless congress grants specific permission.

Miss Elizabeth Smart of Evanston, Ill., speaking for the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said the draft law is an unnecessary reflection on the nation's youth.

Nationalist Planes Hit Red Shipyard Opposite Formosa

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 30.—(AP) Chinese National B-25 bombers today raided shipyards at Poochow, Communist port 100 miles west of this Nationalist island.

The Air Force announced extensive damage was done. It said air attacks also were continued on the Luichow peninsula, where the Reds are massing small ships and boats for a possible assault on Hainan island, ten miles off the South Coast.

Results of the latest Luichow raid were not disclosed, but 50 Red junk were reported destroyed and many gun emplacements demolished in a similar attack Sunday. A Nationalist spokesman said Sunday that the Reds had massed 5,000 junks and other craft in the Luichow area for an invasion of Hainan.

Interviewed today on Hainan by Seymour Topping, Associated Press correspondent, Gen. Hsueh Yueh declared he could hold Hainan if the Red invasion could be stalled off until April.

Topping observed that, although the Nationalist command was anxious to give the impression it was fairly secure, the Reds should be able to infiltrate Hainan almost at will.

B & O INCOME DROPS

Baltimore, Jan. 30.—(AP) The Baltimore and Ohio railroad announced today its net income dropped from $22,158,295 in 1948 to $6,868,827 last year, a decrease of $15,289,468.

The year-end financial report said a general decline in business and the several work stoppages in the coal and steel industries were responsible for the abrupt decline.

AFL Charges Denham Trying To Break Up Labor Unions

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 30.—(AP) Angry leaders of the American Federation of Labor said today that Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations board, is campaigning to apply the anti-trust law to big labor unions.

That was the AFL executives' reaction to Denham's speech in Washington today before the American Trucking association. Denham singled out the AFL Teamster's union with which the truckers do business. He said the teamsters have a tremendous "potential power" to paralyze the country with simultaneous trucking strikes over the nation.

Dan Tobin, president of the Teamster's union, also had a sharp retort for Denham. He said Denham's views were "absolutely unfounded" as the Teamsters have "never exercised a combined strike power."

Tobin and William Green, AFL president, separately told newsmen that the teamsters have not had "any serious strikes" for several years and have no strikes at all in

A short time earlier Tully's car went out of control and into a ditch but he escaped injury. He had the car towed out and drove on.

Then Tully's car side swiped a truck, turned over and he was killed. Tully, an employee of a night club north of here, was alone. Malcolm Patton, Miller City, said the car swerved across the road and side-swiped his truck. Patton said no one in his truck was hurt.

Barnes succeeds Dr. O. F. Anderson of Rock Island, who resigned. He is a past president of the Southern Illinois Historical society and is a high school history teacher.

Acheson Requests Continued Aid To Republic Of Korea

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) Secretary of State Acheson told congress today it would be "most unfortunate" if the United States halted economic aid to the American-sponsored republic of Korea.

The effect, he said, would be felt throughout southeast Asia.

Testifying before the House foreign affairs committee, Acheson appealed for a reversal of the House's action in defeating a $60,000,000 Korean aid bill. The measure was re-buffed in the House by a one-vote margin, 192 to 191, on Jan. 19.

Committee Chairman Kee (D-W. Va.) said today that to expedite matters, Acheson approved a proposal to wrap up in one bill the $60,000,000 Korean aid program and extension of the 1948 China aid act through fiscal 1950. Both programs expire Feb. 15.

Approximately $102,000,000 remains in unexpended funds from China aid grants.

RECOVER 14,592 STOLEN GOLF BALLS

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(AP) The police cartage detail was virtually rolling in golf balls today—14,592 of them. A telephone tip sent the officers, headed by Lt. James Lynch, to a garage at 307 W. 24th St.

In the building, they found the spheres, stolen Friday from a parked Specter Motor Service truck.

More Miners Idle In 'No Contract, No Work' Strike

Asks Senate Demand T-H Act Be Used

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) Senator Byrd (D-Va) today demanded that the Senate call on President Truman to crack down on the coal strike immediately or risk "a critical situation in a period of hours."

Even as the Virginian spoke in the Senate, Mr. Truman was believed poised to step into the worsening situation after a warning hint of White House intervention failed to halt new walkouts.

There was official silence, but presidential aides kept tab on the strike. It spread among one-fourth of John L. Lewis' 400,000 soft coal diggers in the face of reports that Mr. Truman might act if they didn't return at once.

Sees Critical Situation
Byrd urged use of the Taft-Hartley law to halt the strike, declaring that "with cold weather forecast throughout the east, as well as the north and west, we may easily have a critical situation in a period of hours."

Byrd laid before the senate a resolution which if adopted would urge president to use the act, under which he can ask the courts for an 80-day injunction to keep the United Mine Workers producing coal.

Byrd told a reporter he probably will move Wednesday to bring up the measure for debate if there has been no marked improvement in the coal situation and no action by the president. He predicted a majority of the senate would support it.

Would Not Require House
The resolution would not require house concurrence and it would not compel Mr. Truman to follow its recommendation, but Byrd said it would be "profoundly persuasive."

The senator called Mr. Truman stubborn and asserted that "everybody in the country except the president and the labor leaders knows that a national emergency exists."

Tactics followed by Lewis are "menacing the general welfare of the American people in the dead of winter," says Byrd in denouncing the three-day work week instituted by the union leader.

The president talked during the day with his staff. Afterward one of those who attended said that it appeared unlikely a move would be made today.

Senator Blasts Proposal To Junk Electoral College

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) A proposal to revamp the method of electing a president came under fire today from Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), who said it would ruin the two-party system.

Ferguson said a proposed constitutional amendment sponsored by Senator Lodge (R-Mass) and others would have "revolutionary consequences to the political health of the country."

In brief, the proposal being debated in the Senate would abolish the electoral college, although the state would continue to have electoral votes, as at present.

It also would wipe out the so-called unit rule, under which a presidential candidate who gets the most popular votes in a state receives all its electoral votes. Lodge's proposed amendment would split up a state's electoral votes in the same ratio that the popular vote in the state is divided.

The Senate has agreed to vote at 3 p.m. (CST) Wednesday. Since the resolution calls for a constitutional amendment, it requires a two-thirds majority of the Senate and the House, which has not yet acted. It would then have to be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

Overhears Couple Arguing, Discovers Hubby Is Convict

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—(AP) The couple upstairs were arguing and their conversation suddenly became interesting to Patrolman James A. Hicks.

The off-duty policeman reached for his phone and dialed headquarters after he heard the wife shout: "You know where you belong? Right back on that Georgia chain road! gang you got away from!"

Detectives arrived within minutes, arrested the man, Thomas J. Dixon, 30, and wired Georgia for his record. Today police had to tell Dixon's now remorseful wife the information she unwittingly gave them was correct. Dixon, a wire from Georgia said, is wanted as an escapee from the Laurens county public works camp in Dublin, Ga., where he was serving a 20-year burglary sentence.

Warns U. S. Could Be Sneak Attack Victim

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) Secretary of Defense Johnson soberly cautioned tonight that an attack on this country "could come from the opposite hemisphere without warning and with unpredictable fury."

He put this warning into his first annual report, in which he noted parenthetically that Russia now has the secret of atomic explosives.

But at another point Johnson expressed belief that the prospect of war is diminishing, despite the Russian attitude. He wrote:

"While we must recognize the bitter truth that there can be no real peace and security so long as our free world is blighted by which has repeatedly demonstrated hostility to our form of government we have good reason to believe that the prospects of averting another world conflict are steadily improving."

The military strength of the United States, he declared, has much to do with discouraging a venture into a shooting war by an aggressor nation.

Johnson, who on occasions has been reported at odds with the State department over diplomatic-military policy, said there has been an "intimate unification of separate lines of governmental activity in the formulation and conduct of foreign policy."

This, he said, has been accomplished through the national security council "which brings to bear on fundamental problems the considered judgment of the State department, the national military establishment and other agencies."

With the exception of the footnote reference to the Russian A-Bomb announcement by President Truman last September, Johnson's report covers the fiscal year which ended last June 30. Thus reports on expenditures, military strength and other factors are outdated by subsequently published information.

UAW, IAM Unions Sign 'No Raiding' Peace Pact Monday

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) Two of the nation's largest rival unions today announced a "No Raiding" peace pact through Secretary of Labor Tobin.

Walter A. Reuther's United Auto Workers, with nearly a million members, and the International Association of Machinists, with about 600,000 key craftsmen in auto, airplane and other industrial plants, signed the Armistice.

Each agreed not to seek members where the other has bargaining rights. The machinists, an Independent Union which broke away from the AFL in 1946, had boosted its membership to around the million mark during the war after the AFL gave it jurisdiction across-the-board for airplane plants. At the same time, Reuther's CIO-United Auto Workers were battling for the right to speak for the mushrooming Airplane Industry.

The two big unions crashed head-on during the war but their quarrels were controlled by the War Labor Board and the National Labor Relations board. After the war, when the airplane industry cut back severely, the Machinists union lost heavily.

F.D.R. Honored At Graveside Rites On His Birthday

Hyde Park, N. Y., Jan. 30.—(AP) A little Texas girl, herself once a victim of infantile paralysis, today stood at the grave of Franklin D. Roosevelt who overcame the handicap of the disease to become president.

Ceremonies at the grave of the late president marked his 68th birthday anniversary.

Eight-year-old Wanda Wiley of Austin, Tex., 1950 March of Dimes girl, watched solemnly as a wreath of red carnations was laid on Roosevelt's grave.

The five and one-half foot wreath was placed by Pat Russell of Birmingham, March of Dimes state chairman for Alabama. Wanda wanted to lay the wreath herself, but the huge floral tribute was too big for her to handle.

She also watched as a floral tribute from President Truman was placed by Col. John J. Morrow, chief of staff at the U. S. military academy, West Point, N. Y. A detachment of cadet officers took part in the ceremony.

ANNOUNCE DIVIDENDS

Kansas City, Jan. 30.—(AP) Mid-Continent Airlines, Inc., said today its unaudited report for 1949 indicates a net profit, after taxes, of $313,543, or 77.36 cents per share. In 1948 the profit was $104,070 or 26.63 cents per share.

Nationwide Phone Strike Slated To Begin Tomorrow

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP) A ed that the CIO urge its members to make lots of calls if necessary. CIO President Philip Murray pledged "whatever help you may require" without specifying the nature of cooperation to be extended.

The union promised, however, to maintain emergency telephone service. Beirne said he wrote to this effect to President Leroy Wilson of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., parent of the Bell system.

Beirne said that by use of special numbers which would not be affected by any rush on telephone lines, service will be maintained for doctors, nurses, fire, police and other telephone needs in special cases.

Beirne said that he had conferred a week ago in Cincinnati with a government conciliation service official but that no proposals for government intervention were discussed. Beirne expressed confidence that the picket lines will be observed not only by CWA's own members but by the members of independent unions in some areas like New York City.

Hints Of U.S. Action Have No Effect

Pittsburgh, Jan. 30.—(AP) Nearly 100,000 soft coal miners were on a "no contract no work" strike tonight despite earlier reports of a back-to-work movement.

About 10,000 more were idle this week than last.

The White House was keeping a speculative eye on the spreading walkout. A source close to President Truman said he may intervene soon if the miners don't resume digging coal.

Only one state affected last week was able to resume normal production. This was Tennessee, where 200 strikers went back to work.

An Illinois walkout of 275 United Mine workers was the first strike there since January 3 when 16,000 miners stopped work for a week. That set off the 1950 disturbances. Those men returned the pits January 9 on orders of Hugh White, state UMW president.

The coal strike gathered new strength in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, the two largest coal states.

20,000 Out In W. Va.
West Virginia reported 20,000 miners out of 110,000 are staying at home. Last week the state listed 10,000 idle. Some pickets spent the weekend knocking at fellow workers' doors, asking them not to work.

In western Pennsylvania, about 48,000 of the 50,000 miners continued to ignore come-to-work whistles. The big development in that state, however, came in the central area (District No. 2) where practically everybody worked last week but where about 10,000 were idle today.

Affects Four Counties

The walkout affected four central Pennsylvania counties—Armstrong, Cambria, Indiana and Somerset. Shut down were four big Rochester & Pittsburgh coal co. mines, idling nearly 4,000; three Berwind-White operations employing 1,500; and four Bethlehem Steel Corp. Miners struck or were led out by pickets at a dozen other mines in the area.

The number of idle in the coal mines of Alabama rose to about 10,000. All captive (steel-company owned) mines were shut down in the state and only about 8,000 men worked in commercial mines.

Production is practically normal in eastern Kentucky. Only four truck mines, employing 275, continued idle. The strike continues to take a toll of jobs in coal-using industries.

Bunche Says Racial Discrimination In Capital Scandalous

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP) Ralph J. Bunche, former U. N. mediator for Palestine, says in an article in the American magazine that racial discrimination in Washington, D. C., is scandalous. Bunche is an American negro.

"If I visit Washington today I can't buy a meal, order a drink, see a movie, or, with very few exceptions, rent a hotel room, except in the negro section of town," Bunche wrote in the article made public tonight.

After winding up his job in Palestine, Bunche last year turned down an offer to become an assistant secretary of state in favor of remaining in his U. N. post as top-ranking director of the U. N. trusteeship department.

One report was that he did not want to return to Washington because of racial conditions there.

COLLISIONS HAVE A DAY IN ENGLAND

London, Jan. 30.—(AP) A train hit Dr. William Rossiter's car at Portsmouth today and carried it 125 yards along the track. He crawled out with a bruise on one foot.

A baby buggy pushed by a mother in a hurry, knocked Miss Maud Coleman down in London and broke her right leg.

Two sheep dogs named Magic and Mystic collided during a romp at Fordcombe and dropped dead with broken necks.

DANGER OF FALLING INTO RED NET

That Alger Hiss evidently was dazzled by the fraudulent dreams of communism is not the riddle you might think. Communism, like socialism, always has exerted a powerful appeal upon intellectuals. Especially the younger ones. And the Hiss of the 1930's certainly fit that mold.

What is this appeal based on? Communism—in theory—offers solutions to the great problems perplexing a chaotic world. And it promises them now—in this generation. (We aren't talking here about how it really works.)

The magnetism of such a system to an idealistic youth should be obvious. Provoked by the dilemmas and inequities of capitalist society, he burns with a steady desire to wipe them out and create a new structure free of these weaknesses.

A young idealist is impatient of the slow, plodding gains that actually have marked the course of most real social progress. He wants the millennium in his time. Often he concludes that communism will bring it more quickly than any other system.

Communists know the advantage they enjoy with intellectuals. They use it shrewdly, diabolically, drawing many into their act. While feeding them the slick, pat ideology that sustains them, the party leaders warp the energies of their recruits to serve a single master—Soviet Russia.

In the 1930's this must have seemed reasonable to deluded intellectuals. For Russia then was the Great Fatherland, the one place on earth where communism was not just theory but fact. Pro-Communist idealists of that time told themselves that whatever served Russia supported the Noble Experiment and thus was good.

Their delusion is puzzling only if we assume that an intellectual is wholly rational. Unfortunately he isn't. He too frequently yields, like anyone else, to emotional thinking and the process of self-justification we call rationalizing.

He believes no one is more outraged at social injustice than he. And no doubt it does strike him hard. By contrast, communism seems to him a theory of shining perfection.

But though he eagerly devours all evidences of injustice in capitalist society, his mind rejects virtually all unpleasant facts about communism in actual practice. The hooking story of totalitarian tyranny masked as a great co-operative society he dismisses as an evil concoction of "decadent capitalists" eager to save their skins.

Such blindness we can't condone in Hiss or any other intellectual. Particularly now, with the earmarks of tyranny so plainly visible in many Communist countries, here is little excuse for 1950 idealists falling into the trap.

But maybe the tragedy of Hiss, personal and close to home, affords our intellectuals a more forceful lesson than even the most shattering accounts of life under communism abroad.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Great Strides
Made In Easing
Labor Pains

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Since about three million women in the United States have children each year, anything that can be done to increase the safety of childbirth or to lessen the pain involved in that process is of very great importance indeed. Great strides have already been made toward both these objectives. The dangers of childbirth have fallen greatly thanks to the conquest of "childbirth fever" and the greater knowledge of the management of other complications.

The pain and discomfort of childbirth have been attacked by a number of different methods. Today there are many anesthetics which can be given by breathing in, by vein, or by mouth and which, when properly employed, make childbirth comparatively easy.

Another method which has received a great deal of attention is the use of an anesthetic injected into the lower part of the spine continuously during the latter stages of childbirth. This procedure, which is called "continuous caudal anesthesia," seems to be most helpful when properly given. It is not preferred by all obstetricians, however, some of whom have better results with other methods.

With this method, he has reported excellent results and some others have confirmed them. His studies have received serious attention all over the world and, as should be the case, a good deal of difference of opinion has developed. Some feel favorably inclined towards this method and others prefer to use methods of reducing the pain of childbirth which have been tested for a long time and proved safe and effective.

Whatever method is followed in reducing the pain of childbirth, prospective mothers can feel satisfied that they have a much better deal than their mothers or grandmothers did. Childbirth is safer today and far less painful than was ever true in the past.

COMMUNICATIONS

Editor, Jacksonville Daily Journal:

Dear Sir: Some time when you can spare a space in the Journal, could you pass this tip on to the many sportsmen who like me take the Journal. The reason I ask: last fall while duck shooting on the lake at Jacksonville, I saw a man who came near drowning on account of his hip boots filled with water after he fell out of a boat.

Don Hammit passed this tip to us, and it recently was demonstrated by Mr. Hugh Johnson, YMCA swimming instructor at Portland, Ore., who purposely fell off a fishing dock fully clothed with hip boots on and with a casting rod in his hands and floated back into the dock. Here's the tip: If you should fall into deep water with hip boots on, use your head and at once tuck your knees up under your chin, doubling up the knees this way and keeping water from going into the boots and filling them up. The boots are mostly filled with air and will keep a man afloat.

Shall We Educate
The Gorilla?

By HAL BOYLE

New York—AP—The late Arthur Brisbane used to contend that if you sat a couple of apes down at two typewriters they eventually would write all the books in the British Museum.

So far this remains only a theory, as no one yet has managed to keep an ape interested in a typewriter long enough to write even a short story for the Saturday Evening Post.

There is an interesting experiment going on at the San Diego zoo though, that may in time afford an opportunity to see if Brisbane was right.

Three young gorillas are getting a chance to see if they can understand a college professor. The gorillas—Albert, Bata and Bouba—come from Africa. The professor, Dr. Robert M. Yerkes, comes from Yale, and he is a renowned authority on anthropoid apes.

The professor hopes to teach the apes to talk. If he is successful, they will be the first gorillas in history to employ the English language.

Somehow the whole experiment seems a bit unfair to the gorillas, who, if they were human, would still be wearing diapers. All are a year or under in age, too young really for kindergarten.

And what have they got to gain by learning to talk? Getting right down to the blunt truth, what have captive gorillas got to discuss?

Suppose all three gorillas turn out to be mental wizards. I still can see nothing but trouble ahead for them. If Albert learns to spell "Africa" at the age of 3, won't he at 12 be asking why he can't go to Yale and become the first gorilla to win a college degree? Boy, what a half-back he'd be—he'd make Frank Merriwell look like a monkey.

But the chances are that no matter how educated Albert and his pals become, their only campus would remain a locked cage.

And what would happen to the San Diego Zoo then? There would be no discipline. Albert, Bata and Bouba would spend their time drafting petitions demanding equal rights for gorillas or complaining about the quality of the bananas. And they would make ill-natured remarks about the visitors and the ancestry of the visitors. They would take up swearing.

The reason people go to a zoo now is because the animals don't talk. No language alone won't bridge the gulf between gorilla and man. All the knowledge in the world won't make Albert happy. And if he is as wise a gorilla as I think he is he will tell Dr. Yerkes, "No thanks, professors"—and remain a normal ape.

A shock absorber for use with cross-wind landing gear for airplanes will permit planes to land without regard to wind direction and make possible one-runway aid landing strips.

South Side Circle Entertained At Epler Home

Mrs. J. Franklin Epler, 1058 West College avenue, entertained the South Side circle Friday at 2:30 o'clock at her home. Mrs. W. O. Walt was assistant hostess.

Due to the illness of the president, the first vice president, Mrs. W. T. Scott presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the assistant secretary Mrs. H. F. Keller.

Besides the president, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Deatherage and Mrs. Gillham were reported ill.

At the conclusion of the program the chairman Mrs. J. E. Underbrink presented Mrs. Keller who spoke on "Women of Yesterday." The first woman she discussed was Carrie Chapman Catt. It is for woman suffrage that Miss Catt is noted.

Mrs. Keller then spoke of Dorothy Stratton who organized and became Lt. Comm. of the SPARS. Mrs.

Keller closed her speech by telling of an old lady, Mrs. Cynthia Staley 97, who came from Maryland and visited her relatives and who showed her aunt how to wash sheep's wool and spin and dye it and how to weave it into cloth.

Seventeen members and five guests were present. Roll call was answered by naming a woman of distinction.

Guest were Miss Jennie Rabjohns, Miss Beatrice Robertson, Mrs. Tilman Stout and Mrs. Clyde Trafton.

Refreshments were served from a decorative tea table presided over by Mrs. Ethel Strawn.

Art, Rats, Cat Cause Mixup

Johannesburg—(P)—On the eve of his departure for London to take up the deputy-directorship of the Tate Gallery, le Roux Smith le Roux has been presented with an official bill for $8.05—for cat's meat.

When le Roux was director of the Pretoria Art Center in 1944, rats began destroying valuable supplies of war-scarce art paper. A cat was appointed guardian, and waged such an efficient campaign against the rats that within six months the survivors had departed. As a reward for services rendered and as insurance against further attacks, Tatiana was granted an allowance of meat by the center.

The Art Center's accountant was satisfied, but on the day Mr. le Roux's resignation became effective he received a letter from the Transvaal Education Department which disallowed the claim. le Roux declares that he will fight the claim.

SINGAPORE LOSES CHINA TRADE

Singapore—(P)—Three hundred business firms failed in Singapore during the year owing to curtailment of trade with China and strict currency regulations in Indonesia. Import and export traders who deal with Indonesia and shops dealing in merchandise from China are the sufferers. Total losses are estimated to amount to several million dollars.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

HOLY YEAR CIGARETS—This new brand of cigarettes, put out by the Italian state tobacco monopoly, has the 1950 Catholic Holy Year as its theme. The brand is called "Jubilaeum," and the pack bears a sketch of the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica.

Giant Pointer To Be Butish Trylon

London—(P)—The 1951 Festival of Britain here will have its own version of the trylon that towered over the 1939 World's Fair in New York. It will be a 290-foot tapered sliver of latticed aluminum, 14 feet through at the middle, that will hover like a giant pointer over the festival grounds.

It will be suspended 40 feet above ground in a steel cradle of girders and guy wires so as to seem to be defying the laws of gravity. It will be lit from within at night.

Mother To Testify For Daughter In 'Mercy Slaying'

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 30—(AP)—A mother made a widow by her daughter—Carol Ann Paignt, who shot and killed her cancer-ridden father as an act of mercy—will testify in the daughter's defense tomorrow.

Defense Attorney David Goldstein said the 51-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary Paignt, is scheduled as his first witness when the second week of Carol Ann's second degree murder trial is resumed after a weekend recess.

Goldstein expects his defense to take the entire week. He said he had nearly 20 witnesses lined up, including Carol Ann herself.

The blonde, 21-year-old girl shot her policeman-father, Sgt. Carl Paignt, last Sept. 23.

The defense is pleading temporary insanity in its answer to the second degree murder charge. The penalty is life imprisonment for Carol Ann if she is convicted.

Last week Dr. William E. Smith provided the highlight thus far in the trial when he called Carol Ann insane at the time of the shooting.

He was the family physician who broke the news to Carol Ann that her father had no more than three months to live.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

"BUY AN APPLE, MISTER?"—The apple seller remains the symbol of America's great depression of the Thirties, the memory of which remains vivid and fearful in many minds today. The dramatic spark which touched it off was the stock market crash of 1929. But it was not until late in 1930 that the average, thrifty, hard-working wage-earner really felt the jolt. Conditions became harsher through 1931 and by 1932 millions were jobless, business was stagnant. How we got out of it is still a subject of bitter controversy. There came the "New Deal," the bank holiday and the pump-priming measures, the NRA, the CCC, the WPA and NYA. World War II came and it was momentarily forgotten, but the awful shadow of the Big Depression and its apple sellers will long remain.

Find New Uses For Almonds
Berkeley, Calif.—(P)—Usually you meet almonds in candy bars. You will be finding them in a lot of other places if Dr. W. V. Creuss has his way. He is a food technologist at the University of California and for years has been looking for new ways to use almonds. California now grows 10 times as many as it did in 1915.
Most of the small almonds go into candy bars, but the bigger ones can be sliced, ground, chopped, roasted, oil-cooked, and shredded into such things as sugared almond slices, macaroon mixes, nut-date bars, shreds for cake-fillings, and almond butter. Almond hulls yield syrup, alcohol, and cattle feed, Creuss reports.

Mrs. Robert Dugan of Washington, D.C. recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dugan, on her way to San Diego to join her husband who has completed an advance course in naval gunnery.

Churchmen Hear Discussion On United Nations

A "United Nations" panel discussion was presented Friday evening at Central Christian church at the quarterly meeting of the West Central district. Laymen's League of Disciples of Christ churches. About 125 men were present from 18 churches for a meal served by Group 6 of the Women's Council. Following the meal, a business session was held under the leadership of the president, Fred Schultis of Chapin, and the secretary, Byron Stewart of Jacksonville. The next meeting is to be held at Roodhouse in May at which time a nominating committee with Donald Little of Jacksonville as chairman, will present nominations for the district officers for the new year.

The program, introduced by Donald Little, the Jacksonville president, consisted of a song led by him, several vocal numbers by a male sextet from Tallula, and a panel discussion on the United Nations under the chairmanship of Miss Norma C. Brown of Mt. Sterling.

The discussion consisted of five four-minute speeches on the following questions: "What is the United Nations?", "How is it organized?", "What has it accomplished in behalf of peace?", "What has it done to advance human rights?", "What does the United Nations mean to the smaller nations?", "Can Christian people help the United Nations to succeed?"

Following these speeches, several minutes were given over to panel discussion on all the previous questions. The discussion was concluded with questions from the floor. Those taking part in the panel were Disciples of Christ ministers who had attended a recent United Nations Seminar in New York City. They were Charles A. Day of Taylorville, Ross K. Hellyer of Mason City, John R. Binkley, Jr., of Petersburg, Wilbur W. Williams of Roodhouse, and Leslie G. Heuston of Jacksonville.

Garth Hendricks of Litchfield, the state Laymen's League president, told of a plan to procure a full-time state executive secretary of men's work.

"TAKE A DIP, PAL!"—Oswald, the duck, flaps his wings blissfully and tries to lure his pal into the swimming pool at Madison Square Boys' Club, New York. The pool is closed to members during the water shortage, but officials have allowed club pets to take advantage of the water already in the pool.

We take the Woes and Worries out of Weather

ONE of the grandest things about your Buick is the way you can ignore the season—chew your way through gravel and dust alike, splash through the wet stretches, snug and secure even on slippery pavements.

But bear this one thought in mind...

Rough road conditions call for special attention to your lubricants. Tires should be checked for correct inflation—for deep, clean tread that bites on a slick surface. Brakes won't stop you with a sure and gentle touch if the master cylinder needs more fluid, or if an air-bubble has worked itself into the line. These things, and more, should be checked to keep your Buick at its best.

If that sounds like more than one thought to bear in mind—just drive into our shop and tell the man, "LUBRICARE, please."

Our winter Lubricare treatment covers all these points—with specially trained mechanics following factory specifications as they go over your car from end to end.

Drive in this week, why don't you? The price is surprisingly low. The peace of mind is priceless.

When You Feel Weak As A Cat

If you have that good-for-nothing feeling, like you are half-sick and half-well, and your nerve energy is weak and low, the chances are it is due to one thing: doctors call it: BLOOD POVERTY.

Your blood cells may be faded-out or shrunken, and you might not realize it. Even if you eat the "best" food you may not be getting all the good out of your meals simply because you have SLOW Digestion, without knowing it (or gassy stomach) and as a result you are a victim of Blood Poverty! In other words, your blood is not getting the fullest good out of what you eat. So your blood-cells become worn-down and you have only half as much energy as you really need, you get up in the morning still tired, and your nerves become dull.

Hundreds here in Jacksonville suffer with "faded-out" blood and stomach gas until they get CERTA-VIN. This is the new medicine containing 12 Herbs blended with Vitamin B and Iron; you take it before meals and it works with your food. Benefit comes quickly. Your food digests FASTER, with less gasiness, and you get more good out of your meals. In a few days your blood is energized with new red cells and your nerves become stronger. Weak, rundown people tell us they soon feel different all over. And best of all, our price on CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this New, modern medicine for only a Few Cents a Day! So don't get on feeling half-sick and half-well. Get CERTA-VIN—Mace's Drug Store.

Dr. Robbins Displays Artistry In Recital

BY DR. JOACHIM STENZEL

Dr. Ralph Robbins, who was heard in his annual faculty recital at Music hall Sunday afternoon, opened with the reading of two preludes and fugues by Bach, in B-minor and A-minor. They belong to the less-known works of Bach though Dr. Robbins, in his interpretation, brought out such an abundance of content and strength that we should welcome hearing them more often.

Bach's music provided a most appropriate setting for the main work of the afternoon, Schubert's "Fantasie, op. 15." The title of this brilliant piece is rather misleading, for actually it follows the pattern of a sonata; and Schubert uses that form for one of the most passionate and deep-felt outpourings of his musical genius, of which Dr. Robbins gave the most dynamic and impressive interpretation we have ever heard of him.

The first movement is a very flashy and sparkling allegro, followed by an adagio that shows Schubert in a medium in which he stands absolutely supreme; he uses the theme of his song "Der Wanderer" for a set of beautiful variations which, in fact, have lent to the entire work the surname "Wanderer-Fantasy." In the last movement we were impressed with the tremendous sonority and richness of the fugal instrumentation, which at times let Bach's fugues sound rather pale by comparison and let us realize that Bach was one of the pioneers in music for the piano, an instrument the full potentialities were being explored in Schubert's time.

Dr. Robbins was heard in two other groups, giving a very fine reading of Chopin's Ballade in F-minor and of Liszt's well-known Mephisto Waltz. He concluded his program with Ravel's "Gaspard de la Nuit," a most interesting example of program-music, consisting of three parts. We were most impressed with the middle one of these, a moody and tragic piece entitled "Le Gibet" ("The Gallows"), in which a recurrent and monotonous theme conveys a note of inexorable doom.

The artist countered to the cordial applause by playing a prelude from Bach's "Well-Tempered Clavier."

Street Lights In Second Ward Out; "Short" Blamed

A short in the Second Ward street lighting system put that section of the city in darkness Sunday night and employees of the City Water, Light & Power company immediately started a search for the trouble.

George Coldewey, superintendent of the Jacksonville utility, stated Monday that as soon as the short developed, linemen started ferreting out the trouble.

Mr. Coldewey explained that the present street lighting system is laid out in a series so that when one light goes out the entire circuit, which includes an entire ward, also ceases to function.

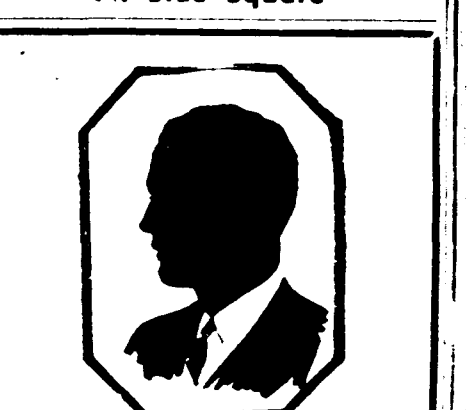

When the present street lighting system was installed, Mr. Coldewey said, the series principle was used. At present the multiple type is used and it is hoped that at some future date the more modern system can be installed in this city.

The new mercury vapor lights which are being installed in the business district are multiple so that if one light goes out the other will continue to burn.

Linemen spent several hours Monday looking for the bad socket. Mr. Coldewey said he hoped to have all the Second Ward lights burning tonight.

Each socket will have to be checked before the trouble is located.

Fix Bond Of Alleged "Checker" At $5,000

A former state hospital patient with what police say is a penchant for writing fraudulent checks was nabbed in this city late Saturday afternoon after he allegedly had cashed a bogus check for $28.81 at the Klumpp Oil Company station on North Main street.

The man, giving his name as Harold Stoltz, 23, of Sumner, Ill., was arrested by Sgt. Spreen and Patrolman Runkel at the Klumpp Motor Co., where he is said to have been checking for trading a truck he was driving.

Police established later that the truck Stoltz drove to this city was obtained from Mt. Carmel, Ill., Jan. 24 with a $200 down payment in the form of a worthless check, according to information received by local officers.

Stoltz, whose record shows he has been a patient at the Jacksonville and Anna state hospitals, appeared at the Klumpp Oil Company station Saturday afternoon and looked at some truck tires. He told Clarence Smith, an attendant, that he was having his truck repaired at a local garage and would drive by and pick up the tires.

A check for $28.81 signed by "Harold Smith" was given by Stoltz who received $30 back in change. Soon after completing the deal at the oil company station, Stoltz began negotiations at Brummett's for trading his truck. Becoming suspicious of the man, the garage manager notified the police.

For Parents Who Gave Child Away Asks Mental Tests

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(AP)—A judge today ordered mental tests for parents accused of giving their three-year-old daughter to a neighbor.

Two other youngsters of Edward Huntzicker, 52, and his wife, Charlotte, 32, (of 2120 Barry Av.) were placed in the juvenile home by Judge John R. McSweeney.

The Huntzickers were charged with contributing to the dependency of minor children. They were arrested Saturday in a tavern after a police woman found the two older children, Marie, five, and Edward, Jr., six, playing unattended in a street.

Mrs. Elaine Wyatt, who appeared as a witness in domestic relations court, told the judge that Huntzicker brought her the youngest child, Nancy, three, last Tuesday and told her she could keep the youngster.

Huntzicker told the court he and his wife quarreled Tuesday. He said he had forgotten the name of the women who had Nancy, and was unable to find the child. Mrs. Huntzicker said she had wandered for three days after the quarrel.

The case was continued to Feb. 16.

Poll Gives Dempsey As Best Boxer Of Last Fifty Years

New York, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, the scolding Manassa Mauler with the cruel fists of a stalking killer, Saturday was named the greatest fighter of the past 50 years.

Not boxer but fighter was the word for this restless man with the cracked-in nose and the bruise-soaked fists.

Always a merciless stalker with only hate for his opponent inside the ropes, Dempsey parlayed a punch and a dream into over $5,000,000 earnings after a hungry start in the jungle camps of the far west.

Now comparatively sleek and comfortable but once raw as life itself, Dempsey outlasted all opposition in the opinion of sportswriters and broadcasters in the Associated Press mid-century poll.

It was strictly a two-man race between Dempsey and Joe Louis, the retired heavyweight champ, with Dempsey a runaway winner. Of the 293 votes, Dempsey drew 251 and Louis 104.

Faculty Members Will Battle High School B Squad At DP Tonight

The Basketball stars of yesterday—an even dozen if you count 'em before the game.

Out to prove that old men belong in easy chairs will be Bob Krausner's Crimson B squad that has lost just two games this season, while winning 12.

There will be a preliminary tussle between the faculty and the high school intra-mural basketball champions will meet for the all school crown at 7 p.m. The Olympians, representing the five-nation-sophomore league, will tangle with the Flyers, juniors and seniors, in this curtain-raiser. Proceeds from the game will go to the student welfare fund.

The B squad may have all the advantages of youth and vigor but they will be battling against one of the most formidable obstacles. Bob Krausner, their coach, will be playing against them. Others listed on the faculty squad are John Chapman, high school varsity coach and former Purdue varsity star, Tim Fennel, Jim Welch, French Flynn, Hal Wimberly, high school track coach, Gerald Kuster and Mack Hollowell. Leading the David Prince delegation will be Bill Ward, junior high head coach, Don Kirkhoff, seventh grade coach, Lyndell Smith and Jim Waltz, high school tennis coach, and D.P. basketball coach, who also serve as the Teachers' number-one bench strength.

J. Merle Wade and John Maynard, South Jacksonville grade school coaches, will do the officiating.

Members of the JHS B squad include Dick Flynn, Dick Beasley, Jim Beck, LaVern Dillow, Don Reynolds, Pee Wee Campbell, Earl Lair, Bill Dickerson, and Don Hazel.

ILLINI FORWARD

TED BEACH
Illinois Forward

Not many athletes enjoy the tutelage of the same basketball coach for eight successive years but Ted Beach, 20 year old Champaign hooper, is an exception.

Beach, now in his second year as a University of Illinois cager, played on Harry Combes' Champaign high school state championship basketball squad. When Combes moved to the University, Beach followed and the two have been together, teacher and pupil, since.

MSM Conference

Waverly and Nokomis are the only two teams undefeated against conference opposition, both teams have run the gamut from great to horrid.

Last week it was Nokomis' turn to look bad; first, on Monday they lost to their traditional rivals Witt, 50-49, a team that they had previously beaten 50-29. Then, unable to rebound from that loss, the Redskins were skinned by Coffeen 62-51.

Elsewhere in the conference, the battle for the cellar looms. Auburn travels to St. James. Neither team has won a conference game, and each owns only one win. St. James gained its victory last week by tripping John Marx's Tallula five, 41-38. Auburn was eliminated by Diverson in the Sangamon County tournament 39-28. Diverson went on to gain third in that meet by blasting Pleasant Plains 53-39, losing to Illinois 51-33; then winning from Rochester in the consolation game 29-23.

Conference teams in tournament action were all not as lucky as Diverson. Pawnee, like Auburn, was eliminated in the first round of the Sangamon affair, by champion Diverson 69-50. Morrisonville was bumped off by Kinross 53-48 in the first round of the Mid-Plains meet.

Frozen Food Plant Raises Possibility Of Cheaper Milk
Chicago, Jan. 30.—P.—The frozen food industry today raised a possibility of cheaper milk through a new concentrate process.

The method is similar to that used now in packing orange juice. But industry leaders hastened to say the development still is in the laboratory stage and may be there at least two more years.

"It's the most exciting project on the horizon right now," said John Fox, New York president of Minute Maid Corp. "It could change the entire milk distribution picture."

Fox and William M. Walsh, Pittsburgh president of the National Wholesale Frozen Food Distributors Association, and other industry leaders were interviewed prior to the opening tomorrow of the national frozen food convention.

The concentrating process, Fox said, differs from that now used in condensing milk. It employs evaporation at low temperatures in a high vacuum.

"It is possible this way," Fox continued, "to shrink a pint and a half of milk to 24 ounces to six without losing flavor or nutritional qualities. Full volume is restored merely by the consumer's adding water."

Extra Bounty Paid On 115 Fox Scalps
Harold E. Hills, Manger of Drexel Sporting Goods, announced Monday that he had paid $115 to Morgan county hunters during the last three weeks. Mr. Hills offered an additional dollar in bounty money for every fox scalp brought into the county clerk's office for the $3 county bounty.

The county will suspend bounty payments after today, so will the sporting goods department.

Mr. Hills observed "there must be plenty of them left in Morgan county." Thinning the fox population, he believes, would help build up the number of rabbits, quails and pheasants.

FARMERS DEFEATS HILLVIEW
Farmers Auto Sales Hillview basketball team defeated Hillview on the Hillview floor 47-36 Monday evening. Top point man for Farmers was Fred Self with a score of 12.

Four Valley Quintets In Greene County Tourney

By John Campbell
Illinois Valley conference teams White Hall, Carrollton, Roodhouse and Greenfield are playing in the 24th Annual Greene County meet at Greenfield this week. Carrollton is the defending champ.

The other two loop members are busy with non-conference games. The two Ivy leaders, Jerseyville and Winchester, are playing Hardin and Griggsville respectively tonight.

Coach E. W. Posey's quintet enters the Jacksonville Crimsons Friday night while Coach Halt takes his Panther leaders to Pittsfield. Griggsville won over the Saukees last week at Pittsfield, 37-32, while the Jerseyville team won over Greenfield 53-33. White Hall dropped the Roodhouse Roadrunners for the second time this season 44-41 at Roodhouse.

The individual scoring race is tightening up. Three of the leaders scored 11 points each last week. The fourth top scorer a week ago, Bo Cummings of Winchester, advanced, with 18 points against Carrollton, to second place. Only three points behind the leader, Teddy Priddy of White Hall.

The game that will determine the 1950 title will be played at Winchester February 10, when the Jerseyville Panthers meet the Wildcats.

Art Houtteman Most Courageous Athlete Of 1949
By Herb Altschull
Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—P.—Art Houtteman, 22-year-old pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, tonight was named "most courageous athlete" of 1949 by the Philadelphia Sporting Writers association.

The youthful right hander was honored because of his remarkable comeback last year after he was left near death in an auto collision in March. He came back to pitch two months later and won 15 games.

Houtteman joins a list of "courageous" athletes that include such prominent sports figures as Gene Bearden of the Cleveland Indians, Lou Brissie of the Philadelphia Athletics; Mervyn Frost, war-burned football star for Dartmouth university; Pete Gray, one-armed baseball player; Bob Allman, blind Pennsylvania wrestler; and Mickey Cochran, former manager of the Detroit Tigers.

The sporting writers also honored Steve Van Buren of the Philadelphia Eagles, National football league champion, as the "outstanding athlete of 1949" and Leon Hart, All America end from Notre Dame, as "college lineman of the year."

But it was the award to Houtteman that was the high point of the sports writers' annual banquet. The Detroit pitcher accepted a plaque honoring his courage before a gathering of 1,200 at the Broadwood hotel.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has found benzene hexachloride may be used to control chicken lice without making meat or eggs taste "musty."

Mize Signs Yank Contract
New York, Jan. 30.—P.—Johnny Mize, the Yankees' veteran first baseman and pinch hitter, sent in his signed contract today from Ponce De Leon, Fla. It was thought likely he accepted a salary cut.

Mize, the 15th Yank to sign, said he had been playing golf and throwing a baseball along the fairways to timber up a shoulder which was injured late last season.

TAKE THAT!—Marion Criss looks like a sure loser taking this terrific right on the jaw, but he rallied to stop William J. Eastus, and won a midgetweight place on the Military Post team at Wiesbaden, Germany. The squad will meet other base teams throughout the U.S. Air Forces Command in Europe.

By Bob Morris

Dr. Chet Bone, Illinois College medicine man, reported yesterday that Howie DeGroot's injury was not so great as first estimated. The lanky reserve forward was bumped in the Millikin preliminary game Saturday night and some believed that he suffered a broken shoulder. Final reports revealed his injury consisted of badly pinched nerves. Al Miller believes the big boy will return to action in a week.

And if that isn't enough trouble for the battered Blueboys squad who must win the remainder of its conference games—including two on the road this weekend—Bob Grove, are guard, has a sore shoulder that won't stop. Though his left shoulder—banged up the night before the Millikin game—pained considerably through the Saturday night battle, he fought the Decaturites all evening and as a result was unable to attend classes Monday morning. Miller believes the play-making strategist will resume his regular role Saturday evening at Wheaton.

Listed under future negotiations for Illinois College athletics is Bill Boyer, rangy basketball player from Beardstown. The big, bepectacled Boyer could spell success for the new gymnasium inaugural season if he decides to matriculate on the Hill-top campus.

"Briek" Young, veteran Bloomington sports scribe, reveals that the 87-66 defeat handed Illinois Wesleyan by the Blueboys here two weeks ago was the worst suffered by the Titans in 32 years of basketball. Record or no, we'll bet a two-fer that the Millermen would trade the victory for another crack at Millikin any day.

Al Miller attended the NAIB meeting in Springfield Sunday and as a result, thinks that the local collegians have a chance to qualify for the Kansas City NAIB tournament in March, if they show well at the tail end of their conference schedule, which shows Wheaton at Wheaton, Elmhurst at Elmhurst and (horrors) Wesleyan at Bloomington.

Gerald Jones, Meredosia's youthful mentor, told last night that his forward, Darrell Tegeder, suffered a broken toe in the first game of the FMBC conference at ISD last week. The big boy played out the meet, though limping badly, and it wasn't revealed that any bones were broken until X-rays clued the Doc Monday.

Don Allen, another Dosh forward whose eye was badly cut in the Indians' PMBC championship fracas with Mt. Sterling, has had the stitches pulled and will play against Arenzville tonight. Coach Jones confided.

More Men. Planes Join Search For C-51, 11 Aboard
White horse, Y. T. Jan. 30.—P.—Battling weather, terrain and time, more and more men and planes joined the search today for 44 persons aboard a plane which disappeared in the frozen Yukon Thursday.

The U.S. and Canadian air force ships were searching a 200 mile wide ribbon 1300 miles long in man's greatest aerial search of the north.

Predictions that the fate of the big craft, which vanished with eight crewmen, 34 servicemen, an expectant mother and her child, probably was locked beneath snow until spring thaws were met with a grim reality. "We'll search as long as there is hope of rescuing the persons aboard."

The sub-zero temperatures presented the greatest menace to searchers and also to any persons who might have survived a forced landing.

Great Falls, Mont., air force base officials were utilizing every available heater in an attempt to warm up airplane motors which wouldn't start in the 15 below zero weather.

7,000 men are being utilized in the great search.

Aurora, Ill., Jan. 30.—P.—John C. Barber, 71, of Route 200, Aurora, died today of a heart attack, just one day after celebrating his golden wedding anniversary.

Barber was cashier of the Aurora Beacon-News for many years before giving up the position to take up farming.

His widow, two sons and five daughters survive. Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

NELSON POTTER SIGNS WITH REDS
Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—P.—Nelson Potter, veteran right handed pitcher, signed his 1950 contract with the Cincinnati Reds today.

Routt At Virginia Tonight; Crimsons, ISD In Action Friday

With a new-found scoring punch in Forward A. J. Spreen the Routt Rockets start tuning up for the coming district tournament by taking on Cecil McVey's Virginia Redskins on the Cass county club's home floor this evening.

Jacksonville high school and ISD are idle tonight. The Crimsons are at Winchester and the Tigers play at Meredosia Friday night.

Paul Stroud's high school showed well in the just ended PMBC tournament when they upended Spike Wilson's ISD band by a two-point margin in a sudden-death overtime period to capture consolation honors while Mr. Sterling was annexing the crown from Meredosia.

Spreen dumped in 26 points in this battle for third place breaking a long scoring famine for Routt cagers who couldn't seem to approach the 20-point mark in early season tussles. The stocky Rocket Captain dumped in 20 points when Routt lost to Mt. Sterling in the semi-finals to become the tournament's highest individual scorer.

The Stroudmen, who hit a full glory they enjoyed under him ready after the holidays and dropped two straight games to Meredosia and Jacksonville high seem to be on the comeback trail as journey time nears. A 10-7 record will prove any claims that Stroud and his gang "I'm very happy to return and I'm looking forward to it with a great deal of pleasure."

His defection wasn't too much of a surprise after his sudden resignation Saturday from the University of Iowa.

On the other hand, the host Virginia five has had tough luck continually this season. Only win coming the Redheads' way this year was a two-point decision over Ashland in the Virginia tournament. Otherwise the Cass county club has dropped 13 ball games.

Starting for Routt tonight will be A. J. Spreen, Dick Casler or Hinky Henry, forwards; Paul Sauer, center and Sonny Loneragan and Jim Sellers, guards.

Anderson Signs 5-Year Pact As Holy Cross Coach
Worcester, Mass., Jan. 30.—P.—Dr. Eddie Anderson is returning to Holy Cross whose roots he has the skillful physician-football coach can remember the Crusaders to the ball.

The Stroudmen, who hit a full glory they enjoyed under him ready after the holidays and dropped two straight games to Meredosia and Jacksonville high seem to be on the comeback trail as journey time nears. Kansas State, Ohio State May Clinch NCAA Berths
New York, Jan. 30.—P.—This week probably is the most important of the college basketball campaign for two Midwest powers, Ohio State and Kansas State.

If each quintet wins its two scheduled contests, both should be in a commanding position to win conference titles and a bid to the NCAA championships.

The Buckeyes are leading the big 10 with a 5-1 record and a season mark of 11 won and 3 lost. K-State tops the big seven with 3-0 and a season record of 12-3.

Both five stars rated nationally. The Kansans placed 12th and Ohio 13th in last week's Associated Press poll.

Ohio State cracked the conference road link Saturday night with a 63-58 victory over Minnesota. Tonight the Bucks go to Purdue (6-8) then Saturday night they entertain powerful Wisconsin (10-3).

The Wildcats take on last year's co-champion, Nebraska at Lincoln tonight and Oklahoma at Manhattan Saturday.

In most parts of the country, the situation hasn't come to a head so quickly.

Holy Cross and Duquesne, both with 14-0 records, still are a long way from proving they're the best in the east. Right now they rank one-two in the AP poll.

In the south, Kentucky's fall from power has started a scramble for leadership.

Plays Guilty To Reckless Homicide
Dixon, Ill., Jan. 30.—P.—A widow charged with reckless homicide in an auto death today changed her plea from innocent to guilty.

Mrs. Mary Ann Bohn of nearby Franklin Grove was to have gone on trial before Circuit Judge George C. Dixon. The plea was changed when Maury C. Pires, Lee county state attorney, said he would not object to probation.

Judge Dixon set a hearing on a probation motion for tomorrow.

The widow was indicted last September after the death of Mrs. Edward McCormick, 62, of Harmon, Ill., in a crash involving Mrs. Bohn's car Aug. 13.

FIRE IN DECATUR DO $20,000 DAMAGE
Decatur, Ill., Jan. 30.—P.—Two fires did an estimated $20,000 damage in Decatur today.

The office and warehouse of the Barding Trailer Sales company were destroyed. Owner Paul Barding estimated damage at $15,000.

Paul Finch, whose four room house was consumed after an oil stove explosion, estimated his loss at $5,000.

LOYOLA BEATS AGGIES
Chicago, Jan. 30.—P.—Loyola of Chicago, flashed a well-balanced coming attack and led all the way tonight in beating Oklahoma A&M 51-39 in the first game of the basketball season 41-31. It was the Aggies' worst defeat of the season.

Freezing Mist Glazes City, Imperils Traffic

A mist which froze as it fell glazed this section of Illinois last night. Sidewalks soon became icy and all travel was hazardous.

The mist began around 5 p.m. as the thermometer stood at 22 degrees. Windshifts soon became opaque and hundreds of motorists had to clear the glass before driving home.

No serious accidents were reported last night, but traffic was greatly reduced, both in the city and on the highways. The ice thinned the crowds at all of the meetings held here last night.

Police said the ice was responsible for two traffic accidents.

At 7:25 p.m. R. Morrissey of Rural Route 6, Jacksonville, stopped his 1936 Dodge in the 700 block of Hardin avenue and prepared to clean his windshield. The parked car was struck by a 1946 Chevrolet driven by Charles W. Huff, also of Route 6.

Mrs. Ellen McGuire, 510 E. College avenue, who was riding in the Morrissey car, received a neck injury.

Two hours later Robert Holmes of Rural Route 5 stopped his north-bound Plymouth sedan at the College avenue and S. Main street intersection stoplight. The front end of his car was badly damaged when it was struck by a sliding truck trailer driven Harold Keller of Rockport, who lost control of the heavy truck as he was rounding the corner to enter South Main street.

Holmes received a slight cut of the forehead. His car was towed to the Lukeman garage. Capt. Ike Flynn, Sgt. Spreen and Officer Smith investigated the accidents.

A dance open to all concluded the activities.

Arenzville Women Complete Items For Vet Hospitals

Arenzville—The Arenzville Branch of the Western Cass County Red Cross recently sent 50 Terry wash cloths to the Percy Jones General Hospital, Battle Creek, Michigan. Ten pillows and 15 pillow covers were also mailed to the Veterans' Administration hospital at Fort Lyons, Colorado.

A request for these particular items was received from the Midwestern area office of the American Red Cross at St. Louis.

The material for the wash cloths, pillows and pillow covers was purchased locally with the Arenzville chapter funds.

The ladies of the Lutheran, Methodist, Catholic, and Presbyterian churches assisted in the hemming of the wash cloths, sewing and stuffing the pillows and sewing the pillow covers.

New Y. Policies, Wide Use Told By McCreery, Randall

Waldo McCreery, president of the Y.M.C.A. for 1948-49, and W. O. Randall, head of the committee for building operations and maintenance, told of new milestones in the organization's history and outlined the wide reaching benefits of its work in their annual reports. They were presented at the 80th annual meeting, held at the State Street Presbyterian church at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 26.

McCreery thanked the volunteers for the many hours they had contributed and commended Paul Hartman, executive secretary, for his excellent work during his first year in that office.

He made mention of the new membership policy adopted in February, 1949, which made the youngsters actually members of the Youth Center instead of mere participants in its activities, with membership cards and resultant privileges and restrictions.

He also spoke of the personnel policy, adopted in June, which details definite qualifications for Y. workers.

Grounds Improved

The landscaping of the grounds was also an important accomplishment of the year, he stated. It made possible by the Garden club, and Mrs. Courtney Crouch Wright, landscape architect, supervised the high school agriculture class in planting.

Randall spoke of improvements in the building, a partition at the head of the stairs to the holding of meetings, a private office in which the secretary may hold consultations. He also discussed the non-profit food service used daily by high school and junior high students and special groups.

Many Outside Groups

The total attendance at meetings of outside groups was 5,640, he said. The high school used the building for art and dramatic club party, contest, G.A.A. play day and physical examinations.

The Youth Fellowship party and the Couples class party of the Grace Methodist church were held there, as were the Morgan County 4-H Council party and the AAA Safety Patrol picnic.

The Girl Scouts held meetings of troop 26, the Brownie Birthday party and the leaders training course in the building. The rush parties of Belle Lettres society and Lambda Alpha Chi sorority and the senior class party of MacMurray College took place there.

The Boy Scouts made use of it for their Den Mothers training course; and the Faith Lutheran church, the only group which paid rent, held meetings there every Sunday.

Communities Represented

The communities from which young people attended gatherings at the Youth Center included Bluffs, Riggsport, Virginia, Roodhouse, Winchester, Arenzville, Philadelphia, Pleasant Plains, New Berlin, Waynesville, Mercedia, Chapin and White Hall.

Randall concluded by stating that the widespread use of the Youth Center proved that it fulfilled a real need.

No Acreage Controls On '50 Soybean Crop

Washington, Jan. 30—(AP)—The Agriculture Department announced today that farmers will be allowed to grow soybeans this year free of government controls.

Some department officials had suggested that acreage allotments be set on soybeans in a move to prevent excess cotton and corn land from being planted to them. Acreage allotments have been established for cotton and corn in an effort to reduce production.

The department said that it could not justify allotments on soybeans because—unlike cotton and wheat—there is no surplus.

"Establishment of soybean acreage allotments at this time for the 1950 crop would have to be based on forward estimates of production in the coming crop season—in anticipation of future surpluses," the department said.

"If farmers continue sound production schedules and do not over-plant soybeans, production controls for the crop could be avoided in 1951 and later years. Future developments will rest primarily with farmers themselves."

The soybean acreage may be determined to a great extent by government price supports. The department has not announced whether it will support prices of the 1950 crop. Last year's crop was supported at an average price of $2.11 a bushel.

Bunco was played, with prizes going to Betty Tobin, Vernel Tewell, Rosemary Milburn and Cora Hamlin. The bride to be received many gifts, and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Guests included Hilda Barnes, Mrs. Elizabeth Travers, Mrs. Lawrence Ruh, Eunice Casey, Thelma Mills, Pauline Vortman, Faye Seal, Dorothy Young, Joan Cosgriff, Lillian Gutmann, Dorothy Castleberry, Virginia Ruse, Pinky Crabtree, Phyllis Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Baker.

The oldest guest present was Mrs. Mae Ledford, 91.

Beardstown Bar Found Not Guilty In Cass Dram Suit

Virginia—A sealed version of "not guilty" was opened by Judge A. Clay Williams at 9 a.m. Monday at the Cass county courthouse in the case of Cresie I. and Everett S. Armstrong, Sr. vs. the Arrow tavern and the Building and Loan company of Beardstown.

The jury returned the verdict at 5:30 p.m. Saturday. It found that no alcoholic liquor was sold or given to Charles Lloyd Toland on the night over a year ago when his car was involved in a crash in which Everett Armstrong, Jr., of Jacksonville was killed and his brother seriously injured.

Separate suits of $15,000 were brought by the Armstrongs against the Beardstown companies under the provisions of the Dram Shop act. The Building and Loan company was sued because it was the owner of the building in which the tavern was located. The plaintiffs combined their suits, asking a total of $60,000.

The Armstrongs were represented by Attorney Hugh Dodd of Springfield. The lawyers for the defendants were Don Thompson of Chicago and Glenn Colburn of Virginia.

The trial began on Monday, Jan. 23, when the jury was selected by 6:15 p.m. The judge turned the evidence over to the jury at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Stores In Readiness For Midwinter Event In Jacksonville Feb. 1

Scores of Jacksonville stores and shops are ready to join Wednesday, Feb. 1 in a semi-annual Dollar Day Sale—the kind which has made this city one of the most popular shopping centers in downstate Illinois.

The merchants and the Retail Council of the Chamber of Commerce picked the date sometime ago. They are businessmen, not weather forecasters, so they do not know whether Wednesday will be fair and warm, cold or blustery. But they do know that the counters and shelves throughout the business district are loaded with bargains.

A long series of successful Dollar Day events back through the years has shown that the weather has little effect on Dollar Day in Jacksonville. When the people know bargains are waiting, they find a way to reach them.

Clean-cut, distinct savings will be available Wednesday on thousands of articles of merchandise. Practically all of the retail stores have joined in the sale under the guidance of the Retail Council. Attractive three-color streamers will be displayed in the stores cooperating in the sales event.

Shoppers will find the business district in much more presentable appearance than a few months ago when the loop paving project was in progress. Smooth pavements now extend out from the square in all directions, replacing the old creosote block pavements that were still in service six months ago.

Shoppers will find a choice of merchandise in all lines that would do credit to cities of much greater size. New stocks and clearance of old stocks have been combined into a sale that offers great savings to the public.

THIEFS GETS SOILED DIAPERS

North Hollywood, Calif. (AP)—There's a fishbaggered footpad somewhere in this neighborhood.

Mrs. William A. Laggosier told police that the interesting looking box some thief snatched from her car contained soiled diapers, destined for the laundry.

REMOTE CONTROL now Xs COUGHS

When you take Bell's Cough Syrup it stimulates throat membranes at X-1, and acts on nerves which run down into the throat. By X-2, transmitted action, it tends to stop that throat tickle, even the tickle that's deep down at X-2. Your cough is checked by remote control—an all-important advantage, because the tickle is often at a point which no cough remedy can reach directly. Bell's positively contains no narcotics. Harmless, pleasant. Get Bell's today.

If hips need streamlining to insure the smooth fit of new slim skirts like the one above, begin exercises now as this girl does. She "walks" across the floor sitting down (upper right). For another exercise, she assumes sprinter pose (lower right) and reverses position of legs in a quick jump.

ISRAEL'S POPULATION OVER MILLION

Tel Aviv—(AP)—A total of 239,171 Jewish immigrants from all parts of the world arrived in Israel during 1949. These arrivals boosted the new state's population well over the million mark.

The predominant line in this spring's fashions is a slim one. This means slim hips if the new slender skirts are to look right on you. And the time to start reducing hip size is now, before you have to step out in new fashions.

Hips don't melt under the impact of a diet alone. One sure way to speed spot reducing is by exercise. There are any number of recommended hip-slimming exercises but for quick action there are two which will get those hips to the right proportions in time for the new slim skirts.

Girls whose hips ride out behind like a bustle will benefit by this one: sit down on the floor and, keeping elbows raised to act as balancing flippers, "walk" across the floor sitting down. Use your legs to propel you forward. Since your full weight is resting on the spot which needs reducing, you're literally pounding off the excess inches in double-quick time.

Another good exercise for problem hips lies in the sprinter exercise. Take the stance of a sprinter ready to go, with hands on the floor, right leg stretched out in back and the left knee bent. Now, reverse the position of the legs with a vigorous jump and repeat this 10 times. Later, you can increase the count to 20.

Once your hips are slimmed to the right proportions, stay with the exercises. They'll keep your hips in place.

Koreans Claim Japs Calling Them Names

Tokyo—(AP)—The Koreans in Japan say the Japanese government is calling them names—and they don't like it. The Japanese government in official announcement refers to Korea as "Chosen," meaning "morning calm." Koreans don't like it because it was imposed on their country when the Japanese took over Korea in 1910.

The Korean mission has formally protested to the government. It represents the Republic of South Korea. The rival Communist regime in north Korea retains the name "Chosen." That's another reason the mission doesn't like the word. The official name of the south Korean republic is Tai Han Min Kuk, which means "Greater Peoples' Republic of Korea."

The Korean mission's spokesman in Japan says it recognizes that the name Korea is widely used in foreign countries. It has no objection. But just quit calling Korea "Chosen," if you please.

City Manager Plan Grows

New York—(AP)—Seventy-nine American municipalities adopted the council-manager form of government during 1949. It is reported by the National Municipal League, clearing house of information for local civic groups. This brings the total number of places in which the city manager plan is in effect to 958.

The league predicted that, at the present rate, the council-manager plan will become the prevailing form of local government within the next decade.

He is still able to make age clerk, custodian of the Hillview school, and was engaged in the harness and shoe repair business for many years. He is still able to make daily trips to the business part of town, living with his wife on Old Church street. The couple has three daughters.

New York—P—Rats, one of the farmer's greatest pests, each eat an estimated $2 worth of food per year. This includes what the animal wastes for it destroys about as much as it eats. It is figured that one rat uses the equivalent of 50 pounds of grain per year.

SCRAP FROM THE STRATOSPHERE — This small, rusty electrical device, called a "switchette," has soared 250 miles above the earth—higher than any other man-made article. Shown by Mrs. Dolores Mohlmann of Schenectady, N. Y., the switchette was a part of the two-stage rocket (model of which Mrs. Mohlmann also holds) which set a new altitude record in February, 1949. Scientists formerly believed the record-setting rocket disintegrated when it re-entered the earth's atmosphere. The badly-smashed but almost-intact switchette was found recently at the proving ground at White Sands, N. M.

STOWAWAY HONEYMOON
Copenhagen — P — How would you like to spend six months of your honeymoon locked up in a cabin as a stowaway? That's how a 23-year old Danish girl spent it. She just returned to Denmark after having visited—but not seen—the Panama Canal, Puerto Rico and Chili together with her husband, a greaser aboard a Danish freighter.
None of the officers aboard knew anything about the romance sheltered by their ship, and will never know, if the sailor and his wife can keep their identity a secret. Six months ago the newly wed woman visited her husband aboard the ship at Frederikshaven on the east-coast of Jutland. She overslept and did not wake up until the ship was at sea.
Soon the whole crew knew about the stowaway. They fed her and she darned their socks.

How Taxes Can Hurt BusinessBy SIGRID ARNE
AP Newfeature Writer

Washington — Suppose you and three other people were able to scrape together enough money to start a small factory. You might lose $200,000 the first year and $150,000 the next year. If you're on the beam, you might break even the third year, make $50,000 the fourth and $100,000 in each of the next three years.

At the end of seven years you would have lost $350,000 the first two years and made the money back by the end of seven years. Your profit for the seven years would be nil, but you would have paid $114,000 in Federal income taxes for the years you made profits. This picture of one trouble met by people starting new businesses is drawn by the Committee for Economic Development (CED).

The CED is a non-profit group of private business men and economists who got together during the war to ease our shift from war to peace. Now they are concentrating on the money the government spends. They think it is important, if Congress cuts taxes this year, that the taxes are cut in a way to give some help to "risk capital."

CED says that because of the worries ahead a good many investors think twice before they go into a new enterprise. And when they do, says CED, two sets of people may lose: Consumers may lose on a product that never gets on the store shelves. Workers may lose jobs they might have had in some new business.

The CED thinks business should be permitted to subtract its losses in one year from the profits of the following five years when it figures out the income on which it has to pay federal taxes. Now business can only spread losses over two years.

CED thinks "another inequity lies in the three per cent excise tax which Washington charges on all transportation of freight. It points out that if a California grower ships oranges to Chicago the freight charge is raised to cover this tax. Somebody has to pay it. Either the housewife pays more for her oranges or the farmer gets less for them. More likely, says CED, both of them pay part of the charge.

"Of course, this freight tax affects many commodities other than food, and with similar bad effects. In some cases the tax may raise prices to consumers by more than the amount of the tax, since the tax may be pyramided at numerous stages of fabrication and distribution," says CED. It wants some of these excise taxes cut.

The report also brings up the people who invest their money in state and local bonds and thereby avoid paying an income tax because such bonds are not taxable by Washington. The CED points out that a person who already has $200,000 taxable income will get less from any additional investment in common stock that pays 13 per cent in dividends than if he had the same amount in tax-free state or local bonds that pay only 2 1/2 per cent.

It feels that this impels the very people who should be taking risks in productive enterprises to put their money into non-productive bonds and thus slows down the growth of private business.

The CED thinks there should be a federal tax on state and local bonds and that it would bring in around $35,000,000 the first year.

White Hall Church Elects Officers For Ensuing Year

White Hall—The 4-19 Class of the First Baptist church met Thursday, in the church with one guest Miss Nina White present. The following officers were installed to serve for the ensuing year: President Mrs. Nancy Ward, Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Dean, Miss Mabel Green, teacher, Mrs. Wade Alexander, class officer and Mrs. Veda Hess reporter. Mrs. Bohn wife of the Pastor served as installing officer.

Refreshments were served by the committee composed of Mrs. Nina Green, Emma Weidell, May Spangenberg and Miss Mabel Green.

Ten members of the Amoma Class of the First Baptist church met at the parsonage, with Mrs. Bohn assisted by Mrs. Grace Naylor and Mrs. Sarah Muntz as hostesses. Mrs. Bohn led the devotionals and offered prayer. A Bible quiz was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rice.

The Music Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Vandettum with Mrs. C. C. Brown, A. E. Hudson, and E. F. Strang assisting the hostesses.

A donation was voted to the March of Dimes and plans discussed for the spring program.

Mrs. Carl Moulton was program chairman and papers on the life of Theodore Presser, whom the club is studying, were given by Mrs. F. N. McLaren and Mrs. Paul Pratt. The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

TERMITES SOLVE CRIME PROBLEM

Berkeley, Calif. —(AP)—Termites don't have crime. They milk insects "cows" and harvest fungi for food, says Dr. Alfred E. Emerson, visiting professor of zoology at the University of California.

He suggests that human beings might study termites to get hints on how to keep the peace. But humans can't copy the bugs completely because the bugs act by instinct and humans have to think and learn before they act, says Emerson.

PREACHER SUMS UP 1950 ILLS

Philadelphia —(AP)—A Presbyterian minister says he thinks he has the answer to 1950's most important problems. The Rev. Arthur D. Williams said:

"We need better leaders, freedom from fear and help for social cripples. There are too many people today who are ready to brand any and all who speak freely about the shortcomings of society as subversive. The result of this is that many splendid citizens see wrong and are afraid to speak and act because of the smear threat."

Carrollton Lions Join Eldred Vets To Sponsor Event

Carrollton—The Carrollton Lions club and the Eldred Post of the American Legion are planning to sponsor a carnival to be held Feb. 18 in the American Legion hall in Eldred. Plans concerning the party which the local club will play in the Carnival were discussed at the dinner meeting of the organization Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church. The club members also voted to furnish a room in the new wing of Boyd Memorial hospital.

Francis Vaughn was named as a delegate to represent the local club at the International Lions Convention to be held July 16 in Chicago. The president of the local club and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hardway and the secretary and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mehl and Francis Vaughn plan to go to Pittsfield Feb. 3 where they will attend a district meeting of the Lions Club, the speaker being Walter C. SOCIAL SECURITY AND YOU

Q. I have been unemployed a good deal in the last two years and have drawn unemployment compensation payments. I am told that this reduces the amount of social security I can receive at age 65. Is this true?

A. No, it is not correct. Unemployment compensation benefits have no bearing whatever upon your later eligibility to social security benefits.

Q. After my husband died last year, I called at the social security office for information. I was told that he had not had sufficient employment for any benefit to be paid. Am I entitled to a refund of the taxes he had paid?

A. No provision is made in the Social Security Act for a refund of taxes when an individual has not had sufficient employment to qualify for benefits. Such taxes remain a part of the trust fund from which benefits are paid. In most cases, since an individual need have worked for only about one-half of his normal working lifetime under social security for a benefit to be payable, the amount of the taxes paid by a non-insured person is small.

Q. Do I have the right to designate the person to whom I would like my social security to be paid in the event of my death?

A. No, you do not have such a right. The Social Security Act prescribes the individuals who may receive benefits on your account in the event of your death.

(NOTE: A representative from the Springfield Social Security Office is in Jacksonville every Thursday morning from 10 to 12. He is located at the Employment Office on Morgan Street.)

Next time you cook spinach try creaming it, flavoring it with a little finely grated onion pulp. If you want to use the spinach for a lunch or dinner dish top it with crisp crumbled bacon and serve it with baked sweet potatoes.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

"WALKIE-TALKIES," most people think, were a marvelous development of World War II when the portable sending and receiving sets gave untold assistance to combat troops. But the walkie-talkie idea is almost as old as radio itself as proved by the 1919 picture at left above. This was inventor W. W. MacFarlane, of Philadelphia with his "portable wireless telephone" allowing two persons to carry on conversations "50 yards or more distant." Pieces of stove pipe served as air "trials" for Mr. MacFarlane's set. Today the "walkie-talkie" and its numerous cousins are used for such assorted activities as search and rescue work, directing traffic, conducting golf tournaments, marshaling parades and even at college commencement exercises.

CHINESE REDS RESTORE RAILWAY

San Francisco—(AP)—For the first time in 13 years, it is theoretically possible to travel from the coast of western Europe across the continent of Eurasia to Hong Kong. GELATIN IS PLASMA SUBSTITUTE

New Delhi, India—(P)—A gelatin per-paration is being evolved in India as a substitute for the blood plasma in the treatment of patients in need of blood transfusion. The research is being done in the biochemistry section of the National Chemical Laboratory in Poona, south of Bombay.

Prof. J.W. McBain, director of the institute, told newsmen recently that if it is successful, the preparation will largely eliminate urgent calls on blood donors to treat cases of shock, burns and loss of blood.

End of a Chapter

By Edwin Ruff

THE STORY: Alice Pine, recently engaged as literary secretary to the popular writer Muriel Haleck, in a way of a strange intuition between Muriel and her husband Brent, an artist. Alice cannot understand why Brent seems discontented and frustrated. One day when Alice on an afternoon off plays golf at the club near the village of Tolliver, she meets Molly Tremayne, one of the local women. They are Brent's friends. Alice is told that Molly does not conceal the fact that she thinks Brent came back from the war with "some kind of a complex." She also reveals that Brent chums around with "Chuck Winner, whom she describes as "warlike." Thinking over the conversation later, Alice decides the less she knows of the private lives of the Halecks the better. But she has found an interest in their adopted son, four-year-old Rick.

THE Halecks' maid Stella, a fresh-faced, buxom female, dignified to the village of Tolliver, accustomed took Thursday off. On this particular Thursday, Muriel Haleck began tidying her table late in the morning.

"I'm elected today," she told Alice Pine. "Brent's off somewhere and I do wish he wasn't. Not that I don't adore being with Rick. But I'm really in a very important part of my novel."

Alice hesitated. But this might be still another way to make herself useful. "Why not let me?" she said.

Muriel's eyes lighted. "Would you? I... Oh, no. I can't turn you into a baby sitter."

"Even if it's my own suggestion?"

"All right, darling," Muriel was manifestly grateful. "I want you, though. He's a cheerful little hand."

"So long as he's cheerful," Alice laughed.

Rick was. Perhaps Alice constituted a novelty. Perhaps, too, she was more resourceful than the phlegmatic Stella. In any case, they had a successful afternoon. Exceptional shells were discovered on the beach. Time slipped by while she showed Rick how to was utterly no reason for Brent's constant sardonic attitude.

"Why shouldn't he have the stuff?" she snapped. "And I'll wash him when we get home."

Brent stared at her in surprise. Then, abruptly, he got off his camp stool and sat down in the sand. Rick had scampered off.

"You know, Alice," Brent said slowly, "you're a lifesaver. Believe it or not."

"Am I?" She was still angry and his quizzically-raised brows didn't help. "Whose life?"

"Could be mine."

"I don't understand." Her eyes were steely-blue now.

"Well," he strained sand through his fingers, "you save either Muriel or me an afternoon a week by taking His Nibs off our hands."

She felt that it was not what he had started to tell her. She said: "You sound as if you and Mrs. Haleck didn't like taking care of Rick. And that isn't true, in her case."

"But in mine, eh?"

She bit her lip. He had a faculty, a gift, for annoying her. "You brought this up yourself, Mr. Haleck. Besides, I'm only an employee. I don't have opinions."

"Sit down, Alice," Brent said irrelevantly.

"But—"

"Sit down! It's nice sand."

"Very well." She sat down abruptly, tucking long slim legs under her.

FOR several seconds Brent appeared to be working at his painting. Moving the brush here and there, touching up spots and finally moving his head as if surveying his job. Then he cleaned his brushes, looked at Alice, and smiled.

"So you don't think I like being with the kid?" Brent said.

"I didn't say that."

"No. But you inferred." He was dogged, persistent, like a child.

"Listen, Mr. Haleck..."

"Make it 'Brent!' Muriel wouldn't mind. Not after all these weeks of unwavering formality."
